

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITY

Sponsorship opportunity

THE INGREDIENT ADVANTAGE

Meet prospective clients at the moment they are looking for ingredients, partners and services for their next project.

5

Limited to 5 sponsors

Each sponsor receives clear space and visibility, rather than competing on a crowded exhibition floor.

What sponsors gain

Direct access to decision-makers

The core audience is brand owners, senior executives and heads of R&D.

The right moment

Participants attend in order to plan new ingredients and products.

International visibility

Appear alongside a French lipid research institute at a forum built on innovation and credibility.

Host your own guests

Invite ten clients or partners to a forum with international speakers, dinner included.

Around 50 participants, each one pre-screened

Brand owners and executives

Cosmetics, dietary supplements and health products: decision-makers who invest in new products and ingredients.

R&D teams and formulators

Those who select, test and specify the ingredients used in a brand's products.

Researchers and academic institutions

Holders of technologies and research seeking a route to commercial ingredients.

Invitation channels

Client and partner networks of TIBD, VISBIO and K-API · Kasetsart University researchers · T2B Academy · TIBD LINE OA
